Good Morning All...

We've been experiencing a real increase in such aggressive solicitation and had officers out to Ralph's and Trader Joe's this summer as a result. Customers and businesses are justifiably complaining. Since then we've been waiting for everyone to finish their vacations in order to schedule a BID Security meeting at which we can assemble the best and brightest from LAPD and, perhaps the City Attorney's Office, in order that a best practices approach top dealing with the problem might be developed.

Miki, what dates work for you and HBD? Ruben & Tony, how about you guys? Let's schedule a meeting for the second or third week of September without interrupting anything that can be done to resolve these problems more quickly than that. Can we?

Thank you all.

Dear Ruben & Tony,

We have some aggressive and intimidating salespeople selling cd's at La Tijera and Sepulveda. Our tenants including Quizno's, Citibank and DWP Credit Union are reasonably and understandably upset that their clients and customers are being followed to their cars and destinations in order to intimidate them into a purchase benefits a non-profit.

I know you guys have bigger fish to fry...but this seems to be one of those times that we may need your help.

Please advise.
